

KERRIVEO – COOKIE POLICY

Last updated: 7 September 2026

This Cookie Policy explains how Kerriveo uses cookies and similar technologies when you visit our website.

It should be read alongside our Privacy Policy.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They help websites function correctly and can also be used to remember preferences, understand how visitors use a website and improve the overall experience.

How Kerriveo Uses Cookies

The Kerriveo website may use cookies for purposes including:

- Keeping the website secure and functioning correctly
- Remembering visitor preferences
- Understanding how visitors use the website
- Measuring website traffic and performance
- Improving website functionality and user experience
- Supporting forms, bookings or other website features
- Measuring the effectiveness of marketing or advertising where applicable

Types of Cookies We May Use

Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the website to operate correctly and provide features requested by visitors. They may include security, accessibility and basic website functionality.

Functional Cookies

These may remember choices or preferences to provide a more personalised website experience.

Analytics Cookies

Where consent has been provided where required, analytics cookies may help Kerriveo understand how visitors interact with the website, such as which pages are visited and how the website is being used.

Marketing & Advertising Cookies

Where applicable and with appropriate consent, these may be used to measure advertising, understand campaign performance or provide more relevant marketing.

Third-Party Services

Kerriveo may use third-party platforms and services that can place or use their own cookies.

These may include services provided by:

- Wix
- Google
- Meta/Facebook
- Instagram
- Payment providers

- Other services or integrations used on the website

Third-party providers are responsible for their own cookies and privacy practices.

Your Cookie Choices

Where required, visitors will be given the opportunity to accept, reject or manage non-essential cookies through the cookie consent options provided on the website.

Essential cookies may still operate because they are required for the website to function.

You can also control or delete cookies through your browser settings. Disabling certain cookies may affect how some parts of the website work.

Changes to This Cookie Policy

Kerriveo may update this Cookie Policy when website functionality, legal requirements or the services used on the website change.

The latest version will be made available on the Kerriveo website.
